Use this when evaluating the relationship selected by the agency.

Compete	Co-Exist	Communicate	Cooperate	Coordinate	Collaborate	Collective Impact
Competition for clients, resources, partners, public attention	No systematic connection between agencies	Inter-agency information sharing and networking	As needed, often informal interaction on discrete activities or projects	Organizations systematically adjust and align work with each other for greater outcomes	Longer term interaction based on shared mission, goals, shared decision makers and resources	Organizations come together across sectors with community endorsed goals, shared measurement, mutually aligned activities, continuous communication and work with a backbone organization

The Relationship spectrum diagram is an industry recognized spectrum of the continuum of strategic relationships designed around solving community issues.
